Subject Ohio State Highway Patrol -- 90th Anniversary Celebrations and Open Houses -- UPDATED

To mark the 90th Anniversary of the Ohio State Highway Patrol, commanders will be hosting district celebrations and post open houses at their respective locations throughout the state.

These celebrations offer the Division the unique opportunity to strengthen relationships and foster community pride by bringing people together. Patrol family and friends, of past and present, as well as our law enforcement partners are invited to attend these memorable celebrations.

Districts celebration dates are listed below. Details on each celebration will be forthcoming.
